Dear Commander Orduna;

It is a simple fact that our community is only as strong as the hard-working, dedicated individuals and organizations that help make it a safe, healthy place to live and work.

That is why I am proud to announce I was able to secure funds in the city's 2004 Fiscal Year budget for NY Naval Military Cadets. Specifically, this includes $4,000 in programmatic funds through the Department Youth and Community Development (DYCD).

In light of the extreme financial difficulties our city is facing, I have worked to ensure that our communities continue to have access to the social programs, educational instruction, and much-needed sports and recreation facilities and programming that allows our community and children to continue to grow.

Over the next month, an agency representative should contact you to begin the contracting process, either by phone or by mail. If you need further assistance or have additional questions, please call Bridget Fisher in my office at (212) 788-6862.

Sincerely,

Commander Alirio Orduna,
Director and Founder
New York Naval Military Youth Cadets
42-29 Judge Street, Suite 4C
Elmhurst, New York 11373

Dear Mr. Orduna:

I, Hiram Monserrate Council Member of the 21st District of the Borough of Queens New York fully endorse the New York Naval and Marine Youth Cadets, a quasi-military organization, which installs pride to the poor, distressed, and underprivileged children of the City of New York.

The New York Naval and Marine Youth Cadets, is fostering in our community youth values of honor, respect, courage, commitment, and personal integrity; with such qualities cadets have taken the initiative by leading and educating their peers about the dangers of gangs, drugs, community safety, alcohol, crime prevention, neighborhood beautification, domestic violence and veteran outreach.

The New York Naval and Marine York Cadets under your command has become the foundation that our children been to share their experiences with each other and avoid problems with the law.

I pledge my continue support of the New York Naval and Marine Youth Cadets for your successful and worthwhile military organization.

Sincerely,
